BUCKETS OF LOVE

Across the country, millions of children are facing difficult challenges. From the 6 million who are admitted to hospitals each year to the 1.7 million who experience homelessness, there are children in need in every corner of our country.

Reagan and Payton, two sisters from Dover, Delaware, are on a mission to comfort those facing hard times with Buckets of Love. Help them bring joy by donating items that inspire youth to have fun and use their imagination.

WHAT: Buckets of Love are buckets filled with toys, art supplies, and other items designed to make children in need smile and feel loved.

FOR WHO: The buckets can benefit children in need generally. In Delaware, Payton and Reagan donate the buckets to children experiencing homelessness or sickness.

ANYONE CAN PARTICIPATE. HERE ARE 5 EASY STEPS:

Step 1: Identify a site in your community to donate buckets and check which items they accept

Step 2: Collect nut free snacks, art supplies, toys, games, and/or stuffed animals

Step 3: Write an encouraging note

Step 4: Package it all in a bucket

(Pick 1 or more!)

Step 5: Log your impact at lead360.jeffersonawards.org

Bonus Step: Share pictures of your activation on social media using #LEAD360

Visit our website for note cards & printable labels.*
